

2010 Mennonite Health Assembly Sunday Morning Worship 9:00 am – 10:00 am

A worshipful response to how we depend on God in times of sea change presented by a Drama Troupe from Eastern Mennonite University and Ken Medema.

Farmer-poet Wendell Berry has been offering a prophetic challenge to Christians to find a sustainable peace not only with each other, but with all of creation, for almost half a century.

EMU theater faculty and students search for authentic response to the God's gifts using the poetry and vision of Dr. Berry. Interweaving stories, songs and poems, we share our journey through brokenness and disconnection and the steadfast grace offered by the God of all creation.

Sabbath #2

"For we are fallen like the trees, our peace Broken, and so we must Love where we cannot trust, Trust where we cannot know, And must await the wayward-coming grace That joins living and dead, Taking us where we would not go - Into the boundless dark. When what was made has been unmade The Maker comes to His work."
